

inam lands that have been alienated. The financial condition of the temples should be placed on a satisfactory basis and their income and expenditure accounted for regularly.

SUBJECT No. 693.

Religious institutions not under Muzrai department.

(1) Mr. Nadig Bheema Rao, Channagiri taluk.

(2) Messrs. Venkatasubbannachar, Thammayyabhatta, Agumbi Rama Rao, and Devangi Raman-na Gowda, Tirthahalli taluk.

Summary of Representation.—(1) There are several institutions in the State which are not under the direct management of the Muzrai department. Some of these institutions are endowed with inam lands. No sort of control exists at present regarding the income and expenditure of these institutions and there is considerable scope for misuses of their income. It is prayed that two Inspectors may be appointed for each district to place minor institutions of this kind on a sound basis. Dharmadarsis may be appointed for institutions having large incomes, and all religious institutions, subjected to the control of Government Officers.

(2) Temples, chattrams and other charitable institutions which are not under the management of Government in the Muzrai department may be brought under the management of Panchayets.

SUBJECT No. 694.

Supervision of annachat-trams.

Messrs M. Chowdaiya, Dasappa and Hariyanna, Arsikere taluk.

Summary of Representation.—With a view to satisfy that the padithara charges granted to annachat-trams are properly utilized, it is prayed that arrangements may be made to supervise these institutions.

SUBJECT No. 695.

Scholarships to Sanskrit students.

Mr. Gundappa, Mysore District Board.

Summary of Representation.—There are matts having liberal grants from Government to feed the poor, to impart Sanskrit education, etc., but these objects are not at all fulfilled at present. Requests therefore that Government may arrange in consultation with Mathadhipathies, to set apart a portion of the grant for giving scholarships to students studying Sanskrit.

SUBJECT No. 696.

Opening of Vedic schools.

Mr. Boregowda, Yedatore taluk.

Summary of Representation.—It has been the policy of the Rulers of this State to encourage the study of Vedas and Shastras. During the jatras in the various temples of the State a large amount of money is collected by means of taxes. This amount may be utilized to open schools in these temples for the study of Vedas and Shastras.

SUBJECT No. 697.

Feeding poor students.

Mr. Gundappa, Mysore District Board.

Summary of Representation.—There are chattrams in taluk headquarters, where feeding is not properly conducted. There are several boys in villages who cannot prosecute their studies in taluk schools for want of boarding. It is therefore prayed that a fixed number of such poor students may be fed in such chattrams.

SUBJECT No. 698.

Education of indigent scholars from muzrai funds.

Mr. V. Raghavachar, Pavagada taluk.

Summary of Representation.—Brahmin travellers are fed indiscriminately in Government chattrams maintained in taluks. Out of the amount thus spent, a certain portion may be set apart for the feeding of a limited number of boys of moffusil villages who are not able to maintain themselves. It is prayed that Government may take early steps for rendering help to the poor village boys deserving to be educated.

SUBJECT No. 699.

Surplus funds of Lingayet temples.

Mr. H. K. Veerabasaviah, Mysore
Lingayet Education Fund Association, Bangalore.

Summary of Representation.—The surplus funds of Lingayet temples and sacred shrines in the State may be placed at the disposal of the Mysore Lingayet Education Fund Association for the encouragement of the elementary education of the community.

SUBJECT No. 700.

Tasdik to Muzrai institutions.

Mr. Madappa, Mysore taluk.

Summary of Representation.—Increased grants may be given to Muzrai institutions whose tasdik is insufficient for the regular performance of padithara, dipara-dhane. If this is not possible, interest may be allowed on Muzrai funds and the expenses met out of it.

SUBJECT No. 701.

Repairs to Muzrai institutions.

Messrs. Nadig Swami Rao and Rama Rao, Sorab taluk.

Summary of Representation.—Much time is now occupied in getting estimates for the repairs of Muzrai institutions sanctioned, with the result that several buildings collapse before sanction for their repairs is received. It is therefore prayed that Dharmadarsis may be empowered to submit estimates for annual repairs to temples, and that a responsible officer empowered to sanction the estimates after inspection.

SUBJECT No. 702.

Rations to poor travellers.

Messrs. Mahomed Imam Sab alias
Baba Sab and Mir Mahomed Sab,
Tarikere taluk.

Summary of Representation.—Rations or cooked-rice may be granted from Government annachatrams to poor non-Brahmin travellers as in the case of Brahmins and Gosayis.

SUBJECT No. 703.
